

Contents

Contributor Biographies	xi
Introduction: The Prism of Migration The Editors	xxi
PART ONE:
VISIONS AND CONCEPTS
The Decade that Changed the Geopolitics of Migration and Diversity Nando Sigona	3
Making a Difference with Superdiversity Jenny Phillimore	8
The Politics of Us and Them Bridget Anderson	14
The Race–Migration Nexus Nasar Meer	18
Everyday (Re)bordering Nira Yuval-Davis and Georgie Wemyss	22
Diversity Adrian Favell	27
Superdiversity: On the Need for History Gurminder K. Bhambra	35
Noncitizenship and Superdiversity Katie Tonkiss and Tendayi Bloom	40
The Superdiverse Nation Marco Antonsich	45

CONTENTS

A Diasporic Perspective on Global/Local Political Change Catherine Ruth Craven	49
The Times of Migration Melanie Griffiths	55
Survival Time/Human Time: Behrouz Boochani's No Friend but the Mountains Lyndsey Stonebridge	60
The Temporalities of Encampment: Producing Discomfort 'in Transit' Anna Papoutsi	67
Applying the Concept of Anchoring to the Adaptation and Settling of Migrants Aleksandra Grzymala-Kazłowska	72
Conviviality and the Banalities of Multicultural Settings Magdalena Nowicka	77
Front Doors and Backyards of Social Difference Sara Bonfanti and Paolo Boccagni	82
The Image of Root-less Belonging in the Age of Migration Özlem Ögtem-Young	88
Youth Migration Daniela Sime	91
Directions of and Developments in the Field of Migration Studies Carlos Vargas-Silva	96
Jan Blommaert's Inspiration Steven Vertovec	100
PART TWO: LENSES, PRISMS AND METHODS
Artistic Representation of Research on Superdiversity Adrian Blackledge and Angela Creese	107

CONTENTS

The Divine Comedy of Forced Migration: The Journey as Method and Beyond Jennifer Allsopp	112
Researching Language and Literacy Landscapes: Local and Global Perspectives Marilyn Martin-Jones	117
Migration in Popular and Genre Fiction Amy Burge	122
Brothers of Italy? Young Racialized Italians Living the ‘British Dream’ Stefano Piemontese	127
Lafcadio Hearn: An Early Embodiment of Creolization and Superdiversity Robin Cohen	132
Rebuking the ‘Work Twice as Hard for Half as Much’ Mentality among Black Girls and Women April-Louise Pennant	138
Comparing the Everyday Lives of Undocumented Migrants in Birmingham and Malmö Jacob Lind	138
Thinking Multidimensionally: Some Visual Challenges Laurence Lessard-Phillips	148
Advancements in Community Research in Forced Migration Lisa Goodson	152
In the Shadow of Conflict: Reflections of a South Sudanese Research Advisory Group Rachel Ayrton	159
PART THREE: SPOTLIGHTS, BLINDSPOTS AND CASE STUDIES
Migration Choices in the Context of Development Richard Black	167

CONTENTS

‘Longing for Home’: Internally Displaced People in Ukraine Before 2022 Irina Kuznetsova	172
Legal and Economic Integration of Refugees: What Works? Ceren Ozgen, Matthew Cole and Hiromi Yumoto	177
Responding to Disasters in Superdiverse Contexts Szymon Parzniewski	183
Gender and Forced Displacement: Ukrainian Women Refugees in Poland Sandra Pertek	186
Internal Displacement in Nigeria: Evidence from Lagos and Abuja Jamila Wakawa Zanna, Samuel Adejob and Surindar Dhesi	192
Futures Denied: Temporalities of Citizenship and the Naturalization of Syrians in Turkey Paladia Ziss	193
Community Involvement in Refugee Resettlement: Sharing Social Capital Natasha Nicholls	204
Patchwork Community Sponsorship Scheme: Challenges and Innovations during the Pandemic Marisol Reyes	208
Meeting Refugee Entrepreneurs Monder Ram	210
Birmingham’s Muslims: Problematized Communities in a Superdiverse City Chris Allen	215
Moving Difference and Brazilians in London: Colonial Legacies Shaping the Global Present Angelo Martins Jr	220
Insecurity and Abundance: Food and Belonging in a Hostile Environment Andy Jolly	225

CONTENTS

The Surbanization of Superdiversity in Flanders: its Spread, Speed and Scale of Superdiversification Dirk Geldof	230
Dignity and Self-worth in Precarious Economic Situations: Irregular Domestic Workers in Geneva Loïc Pignolo	237
Immediate Descendants of Immigrants as Mediators of Cultural Plurality Annavittoria Sarli	242
Connecting Superdiversity and the Politics of Brexit Sarah Neal and Allan Cochrane	247
PART FOUR: GAZES, PERSPECTIVES AND INTERVENTIONS
Superdiversity from a Governance Perspective Maria Schiller and Peter Scholten	255
Precarious Legal Status Cecilia Menjivar	261
The Necropolitics of Immigration Policing Jonathan Xavier Inda	265
Governing Diversity in Italy: How Racism Affects the Institutional Approach to Migration Guia Gilardoni	269
Civil Society's Mitigating Role in Conditions of Socio-Economic Vulnerability and Diversity Gabriella Elgenius	274
Seeking Refuge in Spain: Transiting the Asylum System and Falling into Irregularity Gracia Moreno-Amador	282
Japan's Immigration: Policy and Challenge Gracia Liu-Farrer	288

CONTENTS

Digital Immigration Status: From Logics of Inscription to Logics of Control Kuba Jablonowski	294
Points-Based System 2.0 Colin Yeo	299
The EUSS and the Digitalization of Everyday Bordering: The Case of Roma People in the UK Marie Godin and Mihai Calin Bica	303
The Resurgence of Resistance: Celebrating Solidarity at a Time of Hopelessness Victoria Canning	311
Birmingham's Anti-racist Future Asif Afridi	317
Why a Trauma-informed Partnership Approach to Women's Asylum Claims and Support is Essential Sarah Taal	323
We are All from Somewhere Sabir Zazai	328
Breaking News: How we Helped Change the Story Nazek Ramadan	333
A New Era of Acceptance: Immigration Attitudes after Brexit Heather Rolfe	337